COMMITTEES APPOINTED

INAUGURAL ARRANGEMENTS

Proposed to Have Swearing in Ceremony on Steps of Queen's Avenue Public School - General Meeting Monday Evening

The committees to strike the standard committees to arrange the inaugural celebration met in the Board of Trade office yesterday afternoon. There were present Secretary Fisher and Messrs. Short, Liles, Turnbull, McDougall and Cushing. Some discussion as to details of celebration took place in connection with the naming of committees. The most important decision arrived at was that they would recommend to the central committee a change in the evening entertainment. The suggestion is that a musical concert be held from eight to nine o'clock followed by a hour of a sort of informal reception or "At Home," that refreshments then be served and the ball to begin after the refreshments. This arrangement would allow a good many to attend who would not be interested in the dancing and it met with general favor.

It was also decided that substantial prizes should be offered for games of baseball, football and berrone, and in case these games were not completed the first day, arrangements would be made for finishing them on September 2.

In the matter of decorations it was suggested that each district might furnish the grain for an arch to be inscribed with a suitable inscription about the district. In this way it was thought that Stony Plains, Clover Bar, Sturgeon, Fort Saskatchewan and other districts would all contribute material for the construction of such decorations.

It was recommended that the swearing in of the Lieutenant-Governor take place on the steps of the Queen's avenue public school, and that the speeches be made from the same place, the processions to traverse the city and stop at the school grounds.

The committees were then drafted as follows, the first named in each case to be chairman and each committee has unlimited powers to add to its members.

Reception—J. A. McDougall, K. A. McKendle, Dr. Roy, G. B. F. Kirkpatrick and J. H. Giesbrech.

Decorations—W. Short, K. McLeod, J. W. Morris, J. I. Mills, A. G. Harrison and A. B. Campbell.

Instrumental—Mayor McKenzie, W. Short and A. C. Rutherford.

Invitations—Mayor McKenzie and F. T. Fisher.

Concert—C. W. Strathy, Y. W. Barford and Dr. Nichols.

Ball—T. M. Turnbull, Dr. McInnes and E. C. Pardee.

Souvenir—J. A. McDougall, Allan Fraser and A. T. Cushing.

Games—J. H. Morris, Chas. May, J. B. Mercer, Dr. Glendon and T. A. Bellamy.

Street Made—W. H. Clark, J. B. Boyle, R. Hockley and D. B. Fraser.

The secretary was instructed to notify every member of each committee and request each chairman to get his committee together at once to map out its work and it was agreed that a joint meeting of all committees should be held on Monday evening in the council chamber to report progress, and further decide the details of the celebration.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT

DEFEATED THIS MORNING.

Snap Verdict on Irish Affairs Found the Government With a Minority - Nationalists and Liberals Jubilant

London, July 21.—This morning the Government was defeated in the House of Commons by a vote of 199 to 196 on a snap division from a proposal of John Redmond, leader of the Nationalists, to reduce the Irish land commission vote by £100. There were remarkable scenes of excitement when it became known that the Government was defeated and Nationalists and Liberals rose to their feet and waved their hats and handkerchiefs and semaphored with their arms and cheered until the glass ceiling of the House rang. It was some minutes before the speaker could announce the result, when the cheers were again repeated with the utmost enthusiasm.

LONGS FOR AN OPPOSITION

The Winnipeg Tribune laments the lack of vigor and efficiency of the Manitoba Opposition saying:

"The very foundation of efficiency in every free government is destroyed by the fact that there is no opposition in provincial politics."

It is presumed therefore that the Tribune will not be numbered among those who seek to perpetuate in the new provinces the system which has prevented in Territorial affairs the existence of an opposition with any serious pretensions to life or policy.

CONTRACT AS TO IMMIGRATION

On motion of Mr. E. B. Osler, M.P., that in the opinion of the House it is advisable to give notice of the government's intention to terminate the agreement with the North Atlantic Trading Company according to the terms of the contract, Mr. Osler spoke as follows:

I am sure that the House and the country will be pleased to see the active attention that the honorable members on the other side are giving to the question of immigration at this time. The people will wonder how it has happened that after a period of seven or eight years of apparent sleep on the question they have at last wakened up to the fact that there is immigration and that it requires attention. As a member of this House I have always given a good deal of attention to the subject of immigration and I was always ready to criticize the methods and policy of the government in that respect. It is very strongly within my memory that I have never had the support of members of the opposition in my criticism. One would suppose that the honorable gentleman who has moved this amendment did not know that from year to year for years past, we have been voting sums of money specifically for the purpose of paying $5 per head for all immigrants arriving from continental Europe. This has been within the knowledge of the House and the country for years. The people in respect of whom this money was paid may have been desirable or undesirable, but there never has been a word of objection until now towards paying this one pound per head. What difference does it make whether the pound per head is paid to one agency or to another, as long as we are satisfied to accept these immigrants. I believe that when the Conservatives were in power, they paid one pound per head just as we have been doing, and this being the policy of the government for a number of years, it is peculiar at this late date that some honorable gentlemen should discover that this is being done. It has been in force for all these years and it is no more objectionable today than it was before.

The contract with this Atlantic Trading Company was made six years ago and the reason for it is because the government of Canada is prohibited by the law of Holland, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Prussia, Denmark, Norway and Sweden from pursuing an active emigration policy in these countries. If we are to carry on any emigration effort in these countries we must do so by means other than direct agencies of this government, and so we have to depend upon some outside agencies. If we depended upon the steamship companies, it is just as much to their interest to send passengers to the United States as to Canada as long as they get the passage money. Then if it is in our interest that there should be an emigration campaign in continental Europe, it seems to me that the contract has some commendable features. We do not pay any more under this contract than the Conservative government paid in respect of these same immigrants.

Mr. Ingram—Will the minister tell us what the Conservative government paid for these immigrants in 1905?

Mr. Osler—I am given to understand that they paid the same amount.

Mr. Ingram—The minister had better check it out; he is not correct.

Mr. Osler—I may be mistaken, but I have reason to believe that bonus money was paid by the late Conservative government.

Mr. Ingram—Away back in the nineties, but that was stopped by reason of an agitation in this country assisted in by the Liberal party.

Mr. Osler—Oh, yes; and I notice that there was no agitation from 1896 until the present session of 1905 against this bonus system which prevailed under the Conservative government as well as under this government. My position is that by the arrangement made with this North Atlantic Trading Company the government was sure that there would be an active campaign on behalf of immigration to Canada carried on in these continental countries within which the government itself was prohibited from acting and without any more cost to the government than it was incurring before. I fail to see where the objection to this contract comes in. If there is any objection to the class of people brought here by this agency I could understand it, but without that there has not been presented a fair and reasonable objection to the contract. If gentlemen will move that immigration from certain European countries is not desirable, we might have reason to carry out their views and abolish the contract. It remains yet to be argued that it is not desirable to take measures to secure immigration from these countries, and so, this contract must be successfully attacked on other grounds than have been made known up to the present.

Later in the same debate replying to an insinuation that the contract was a discrimination in favor of continental immigration as compared to British immigration Hon. W. S. Fielding, Minister of Finance said—

What are the facts of the case? We pay $5, according to the statement of my honorable friend the Minister of the Interior, to the foreign company for every immigrant upon the condition that the foreign company shall pay all the expenses of the administration of the business. They have to pay for the literature, for printing and advertising, whatever it may be they have to pay for all the services, but for every immigrant we get from the foreign company we pay a great deal more than £1 because we pay the expenses of our officers in Great Britain. We pay the expenses of an emigration propaganda in Great Britain and if you make an analysis of the case it will be found that we are paying for the British immigration fully as much as we are paying for the foreign immigration and a great deal more. Therefore the erroneous impression is due to the imperfect reports of the discussion which took place and to the imperfect statement of the policy of the country. I entirely concur with the honorable gentleman opposite in the view that we should give the preference in our efforts to bring in British immigrants. I am heartily in favor of that and yet if we were to adhere too strictly to that I doubt that we would be able to fill up the North West as rapidly as we would desire. For many years in the mother country there was a condition of great prosperity, but just now and for the last two years there has been some depression of trade. Up to about two years ago nearly everybody in England who was industrious had ample employment at good rates, and while that condition of prosperity continued it was not reasonable to expect that you could induce British citizens to hurry away from the motherland and come out to Canada. But, of late, unhappily there has been some depression of trade in the mother country and when that condition arises there is, of course, a greater number of unemployed and there is a greater disposition on the part of Englishmen, Scotchmen and Irishmen to go abroad. Arising out of that condition we are able to get a larger percentage of British immigrants than we were able to get in previous years. I still think that we ought to put forth our greatest efforts to bring British immigrants to Canada. We want the North West, while filling it up with the industrious of all classes, to bear the stamp of the British people of the British character from the beginning. We all agree to that, but while agreeing to that and following that policy closely, we must recognize the fact that if we were to limit ourselves to British immigrants we might have difficulty in getting even a moderate number to come. My earnest advice to the Department of the Interior would be while giving preference to the English immigrant, not to fail to take advantage of every reasonable opportunity of bringing in immigrants from the continent selected from those portions of Europe where people can be found who are naturally adapted to make of them prosperous settlers in Canada.

The Sessional Indemnity

Following are the resolutions adopted by Parliament increasing the sessional indemnity, Ministers' salaries and salaries of Judges:

"That in each session of Parliament beginning with the present session there shall be allowed to each member of the Senate and House of Commons attending at such session, $29 for each day's attendance; and if the session extends beyond 30 days, then there shall be payable to each member of the Senate and House of Commons attending at such session a sessional allowance of $2,500 and no more.

"That to the member occupying the recognized position of leader of the Opposition in the House of Commons there shall be paid an additional sessional allowance not exceeding $7,000.

"That a deduction at the rate of $15 per day shall be made from such sessional allowance for every day on which the member does not attend a sitting of the House of which he is a member.

"That a member shall not be entitled to the said sessional allowance for less than 31 days' attendance, but his allowance for any less number of days shall be $20 for each day's attendance.

"That the said allowance may be paid on the last day of each month to the extent of $15 for each day's attendance, but the remainder shall be retained by the clerk or accountant of the proper House until the close of the session, when the final payments shall be made.

"That if any person is from any cause a member of either House for part only of any session, then provided he is a member for upwards of thirty days during such session, he shall be entitled to the sessional allowance herein before mentioned subject to the deduction aforesaid for non-attendance as a member and also to a deduction of $15 for each day of such session before he was elected or appointed or after he ceased to be a member as the case may be, but if he is a member for only thirty days or less he shall be entitled only to $20 for each day's attendance at such session, whatever be the length thereof, provided always that a member of either House for a part only of a session who becomes a member of the other House, shall not be entitled to more than $2,500 for the session.

"That there shall be allowed to each member of the Senate and of the House of Commons, as actual moving or transportation expenses between his place of residence and Ottawa going and coming once each day, but no such allowance shall be made for travelling outside of Canada except from one point in Canada to another by any direct route.

"That at the end of each month and at the end of the session each member shall furnish the clerk of the House of which he is a member with a statement signed by him of his actual moving or transportation expenses, as herein above provided, and that upon the said statements being certified by the clerk and sworn to be true by the member before the accountant or assistant accountant of the House or any person authorized to take affidavits, the accountant shall pay to the member the allowance to which he is entitled according to the said statements.

"That it is expedient to provide that every member of the privy council of Canada who has served as a Cabinet Minister and head of a department for the full period of five consecutive years shall upon his retirement from the Cabinet be entitled to receive out of the consolidated revenue fund of Canada an annuity equal to one-half of the salary attached to his office or position at the time of his retirement. 2—If any person receiving an annuity hereunder become entitled to any salary in respect of any public office under the government of Canada or to the additional sessional allowance provided for the leader of the opposition in the House of Commons such salary or allowance shall be reduced by the amount of such annuity.

"That who shall participate in the proposed annuity are:—Sir Charles Tupper, Sir Robert Tupper, Sir Hector Langevin, Sir Adolph Caron, Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Sir John Gwynne, and Messrs. Foster, Hargrave, Costigan, Blair and Parry.

"That salaries of Supreme court Judges are to be: Chief Justice, $10,000; each of the puisne judges, $9,000; judge of exchequer court, $8,000.

At present the county court judges start with $2,000, and at the end of three years get $2,400. Now they will start at $2,500, and get $3,000 at the end of three years.

All judges salaries in superior court, the supreme court of Canada and the exchequer, have been increased by $2,000.

—Calgary Alberta: The people of Edmonton have another grievance against Calgary and that is the beginning of another story. The Peerless Entertainment Company had its birth and bringing up in this city. The company, which is all the variety kind, never did any business in this city, doubtless the managers believing that the prophet is not with-out honor save in his own country. The company in question, though, formed in the midst of the city, desired to try it on the dog first, and remembering that everything goes in Edmonton, made their first assault upon Edmonton.

J. St. Clair Blackett leaves for Winnipeg tomorrow.

Mrs. James McCausland and daughter Miss Lillian, left this morning on a two weeks' visit to Banff.

BASEBALL

The Capitals were victorious in the game with Innisfail last evening by a score of seven to three. The visitors were slow in the third and a good list of errors were charged up against them. They are fairly good batters and if they would only pick up the ball in the field instead of letting it go by they would play a really good game.

In the first innings Innisfail went to bat. McKinnon, the first man, was struck out. Clemens then got to first but Willoby was caught out by Deaton who threw to first making a double play and retired the side. Deaton went to bat for the home team, but got out at first. Castor followed and was caught out on a fly. Till hit a three bagger, and Bishopric got a base on balls. A wild throw to third let Till and Bishopric home. Maloney got to first but was put out trying to steal second.

In the second, H. Smith went to bat for the visitors and got to first on a word ball. Samis was put out at first. S. Smith was struck out and White was put out at first retiring the side with H. Smith no farther than second base. Kinnear took the bat for the Capitals but was caught out on a fly. Hunt got to first Milne hit out to the short stop who muffed it and he made first. Kinnear stole 2nd and 3rd and Hunt got a second. Vining went to bat and was caught out on a foul; he was followed by Deaton who was caught out on a fly and no runs were scored.

In the third innings the visitors awakened up and for a while it looked as if things were going their way. Maybank went to bat first. He hit but it was in Maloney's direction and Pat made a star catch. McDowell then made a two base hit, then Clemens pounded out a two bagger letting McDowell and McKinnon home. He stole third and on a ball passing the catcher he scored. Willoby and H. Smith followed and were both caught at first. This made the score 3 to 2 in favor of the visitors and they began to feel the thrill of victory, which was intensified when the home team went to bat for the third, and while Castor got to first, on a muffed fly, S. Smith was caught out on a long fly, Bishopric struck out and Maloney caught on a foul thus retiring the side on a goose egg score.

The fourth innings brought no score to either side. For Innisfail Samis went to bat and got out at first. S. Smith was then struck out. White got to first, but Maybank fanned out and the side retired. Kinnear took the bat for the city club and made first base. Hunt was killed on first. Milne reached first the s.s., making another muffed, Vining was struck out, Deaton made first but Kinnear was caught stealing third.

In the fifth McDowell for the visiting team led off first. McKinnon got to first and made his way on to third. Clemens got out at first by a star play of Hunt who captured a grounder with one hand and ran to the base ahead of striker. Willoby was caught out on a long fly by Till who had to run for his Castor was up for the home team. He got to first and stole second and third. Till got a base on balls. Bishopric got out at first, as also did Maloney but he got Castor home and the score was evened. Kinnear got out at first and the side retired.

The sixth innings was brief in duration. H. Smith went to bat for Innisfail and was struck out. Samis was killed at first and S. Smith was struck out on the first three balls thrown to him. Hunt took the stick for the Capitals and made first then stole second. Milne was caught out on a fly. Vining waited for four balls and took his base. Deaton got a first and the bases were full. Castor went to bat and got out at first and by a double play Hunt was killed at home plate.

The seventh was the fateful innings for the visitors. White went to bat for them and was put out at first. Maybank got a first and second but McDowell was caught on a fly and McKinnon was struck out retiring the side. The home team then went to bat and had things their own way for a while. In this innings every man on the side went to bat. Till came first and made a good one bag hit, then stole second. Bishopric got a base on balls and Maloney made a hit that let Till home. Kinnear made a one base hit and the bases were full. Hunt got out on a foul off the bat hitting in the third stroke. Milne then pounded a two bagger across the lot, the left fielder muffed it and it was a merry-go-round three men getting home, making four runs in the innings. Vining made a good one bag hit to first then stole second, but Deaton was struck out and Castor put out at first retiring the side.

In the eighth the visitors easily succumbed. Their first three batters, Clemens, Willoby, and H. Smith, were struck out in rapid succession. Deaton was then to go to bat but the umpire announced that the Innisfail pitcher was unable to proceed with the game and it was called with a score of 7 to 3 in favor of Edmonton. Jos. Martin of Wetaskiwin, was umpire and he was by long odds the best that has appeared in the city grounds this year. His decisions were absolutely impartial, they were given in a clear, distinct voice and could be heard everywhere. He took pains to be in a position to judge quickly and accurately as to a foul or a man being put out on a base, and his work added much to the satisfaction of the game.

Vining for the home team struck out nine players and gave no bases on balls, and Samis for the visitors, struck out four but gave four bases on balls.

The line-up of the teams was as follows:

Capitals	s.s.	Innisfail
Deaton	c.	McDowell
Castor	lf.	H. Smith
Till	3b.	Maybank
Maloney	2b.	McKinnon
Kinnear	1b.	White
Hunt	c.f.	Clemens
Milne	d.	S. Smith
Vining	p.	Samis

The score by innings was:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Capitals	...	2	0	0	1	0	4	x-1
Innisfail	...	0	0	3	0	0	0	0-3

EXTENSIVE BUSINESS

REVILLON BROS. WHOLESALE
ESTABLISHMENT

A Firm Which Endeavors to Furnish a Large Share of the Trade of the North Country—Capable Manage-

A Bulletin representative was shown over the wholesale premises of Revillon Bros. the other day by Manager Short. The extent of the business of this enterprising firm was a revelation. Their assortment of goods is simply astonishing and their stock is in every way complete. They make it their business to learn the exact demands of the trade and cater to these. A striking example of this was given in a large stock of shepherd's plaid pants they have on hand. The manager explained that the fadians around Lesser Slave Lake all wanted pants made of this cloth and these were specially ordered to cater to the taste of these customers.

The basement of their large warehouse is used for storing their stock of hardware. Every square foot of the ceiling has suspended from it granite ware, pails and cans of paint. There seems to be traps enough here to catch every wild thing in the north, and rifles enough to arm a regiment of militia. Nails, chains, axes, pulleys, rubber and leather belting, building paper, oils and tinware of all kinds are found in this large room. In fact it contains a most complete assortment of hardware. They have also a large stock of glass, fancy and plain, which they cut to order and sell wholesale or retail.

On the first floor they have their retail hardware store in the front and their shipping room at the rear. The second floor contains the offices, grocery warehouse and lurs. Here boxes of groceries and canned goods are piled to the ceiling, though their stock is lighter than usual just now.

On the top floor is found their stock of dry goods. Here immense racks are filled with bales of cloth, a stock specially selected to fill the demand and requirements of this country. Their stock of blankets, weighing all the way up to 25 lbs., are enough to make one feel warm to look at. Their supply of cottons is not very large, but they have a car load on the way, which will fill all the vacant places and leave a few bales over. All kinds of ready made clothing, underwear, small wares, and notions are found on this floor. A counter of samples gives some idea of the variety to choose from.

Besides the brick warehouse the firm has two wooden buildings south of it. In the first the odor of brimstone easily informs the visitor that matches in no small quantity are stored here. Axe handles, traps, wire, shovels, brooms, brushes, fork and canthook handles form the list of articles stored here. The other frame structure is filled with soap, flour, lard, bacon, syrup, glass jars and other grocery supplies.

At the rear is a well-fitted tin shop where all kinds of tin work and plumbing is attended to. The firm has a large stock of iron and galvanized pipe on hand.

Between the brick and frame warehouses the company is erecting a new brick warehouse 100 by 150 feet, the present building being 50 by 100 feet, this addition will give them a warehouse 150 feet by 150 feet. The basement of the new building will be used for groceries, and the first floor for hardware with a shipping room at the rear.

Their stock of linoleum and matting and part of their blanket stock is kept in a frame warehouse further west on Jasper avenue.

The business is under the direction of Mr. Theo. Revillon, managing director, and Mr. W. Short, manager, both of whom have shown themselves to be among the best and most progressive business men in this north country.

Judge Forbes, of the St. John County Court, N.B., has struck a blow at the English magistrate who recently sentenced a criminal in England to a British prison or to Canada. Judge Forbes had before him Thomas Jackson, an Englishman, who had stolen $60 from a room-mate, and pleaded guilty to the theft. Having in mind the English judge's sentence, Judge Forbes imposed on Jackson a sentence of two years in Dorchester penitentiary or return to England. He was remanded to jail until he could make up his mind.

Queen Alexandra presided over a meeting at Buckingham Palace, at which was organized the British Red Cross Society. It will include all organizations in the empire having similar aims. Her majesty outlined the objects of the organization and appealed to the women of the empire to take up the work. In times of peace, she said, the society would act separately from the war office and the admiralty, but would be under the control of these departments in times of war.

Two Swimmers Drowned

Mamela, Assa, was furnished with a real sensation this week, by the drowning of two young men in Moose Creek.

It appears that Gordon Bell, Murdoch Hassard and Harvey Brealey went to the river to bathe on Sunday about 3 p.m. They reached their destination about half an hour later, which was between the railroad and the trolley bridges. Bell was in the water first and swam down stream to a sand bar, about 200 feet.

Reaching the bar he faced the starting point and observed both the other two in the water up to the waist, and was backing off when he saw Brealey move forward a few steps and go down, immediately coming to the surface, beginning to struggle and call for help.

At first Bell thought Brealey was in fun, as he claimed to be able to swim a little, but he soon saw that it was a reality and that he was helpless. He shouted to Hassard to pull him out and then swam with all speed to help.

Hassard, who was unable to swim, waded out after Brealey, but the current carried him off to one side. He made a plunge for Brealey when he too went down and also began to struggle for help.

Bell made an extra effort to reach his comrades, but when about half way to them he saw Hassard go down for the last time. He managed to reach Brealey and seize him by the hand from the front, but had to loom his hold to escape the death grip of the other, who went down. Bell's excitement and haste had weakened him so that he could hardly get ashore.

At this point the land juts down into the water a little, and then recedes, forming a sort of basin and forms a sort of whirlpool. The bed of the creek slopes out gradually from the shore for a few feet, and it was at this point where they went down. Brealey sank to the bottom in a depth of three or four feet of water, and Hassard within a few feet.

TEN MONTHS FOR HORSE STEALING

Supreme Court sat in Wetaskiwin last week, Judge Prendergast presiding. The docket was a small one: Rex vs. Schultz. Charged with horse stealing. G. B. Henwood for the crown and advocates P. J. Nolan and W. J. Loyle for the accused. This was taken before a jury who brought in a verdict of guilty on one count of the indictment.

Rex vs. Stevens. Highway robbery. Found guilty and sentenced to two months imprisonment. In this case special comment was made by the judge praising the North-West Mounted Police. Capt. Phillips was responsible for his capture and arrest.

Rex vs. Berg. Wounding with intent to do grievous bodily harm. Found guilty and sentenced to three months hard labor.

LOCALS

—Winnipeg Free Press: Mr. James Fowle, of Aberdeen University, Scotland, and for the past 22 years resident chiefly in Chili and the Argentine Republic, South America, is now in the city. "I have come," said Mr. Fowle, "with the intention of buying land around the Saskatchewan valley in North Alberta, with an ultimate view of settling there, with my three children, should climatic and other conditions admit of my doing so. In furtherance of this object I have had myself retrained as a certified teacher holding a first-class provincial certificate, and purpose devoting myself again to teaching in order to prove whether or not I could remain here after so many years spent in tropical and semi-tropical countries, as otherwise it would be unbearable even here in the city of Winnipeg, for a man in full health and full energy to remain in idle."

—J. McDougall and party are camping at White Whale Lake.

—Mr. John Owens brought in a car load of general purpose horses from Calgary yesterday.

—Nose Jay's annual summer fair takes place this year on Thursday and Friday, August 17 and 18.

—A large raft at Walter's yards is being loaded with jumpers and sleighs to be shipped to down-river points for the fall trade.

—V. Johnston, who pitched for the Capitals the first of the season, left this morning for Inuitfall to pitch the remainder of the season for that team.

—Mr. Hugo Lynn, of Red Deer, is in the city, having returned from a two weeks driving trip through the Upper Vermilion and Beaver River country looking up timber limits.

—Mr. W. A. Jackson, of Macleod, who came to the city with a car of horses, reports that cutting fall wheat will begin at Macleod next week and also says the crop promises an excellent yield.

—Regina Standard: The number of people who got off the westbound last night was large. Many of them walked the streets in search of lodging places, until helped out by the city policemen, and some half dozen ladies were forced to sleep in the C. P. R. waiting room.

—The ferry cable at Fort Saskatchewan has been repaired and the first team crossed on the ferry last night at seven o'clock. The cable broke early this week and let the ferry drift down the river about half a mile. A number of teams went down to the Fort and had to return all the way to Edmonton to cross. The boat, however, is now running again.

—Calgary Affair: Calgary is not boasting of its righteousness, but Calgary people, and the people of the entire West, in the light of the recent gambling carnival in Edmonton, regard the people of Edmonton as the most depraved in the West, and the press of that town as the most cowardly for not exposing the outrage and insisting upon its removal.

—Macleod Advance: A convention of the Liberals of the provincial electoral district of Macleod, will be held at the town of Macleod, on Friday, July 28, at 3 p.m., for the purpose of electing delegates to the Convention for the Province of Alberta, to be held in Calgary on August 3, and for the purpose of organizing a Liberal association for this electoral district and for other important business.

—Prince Albert Advocate: Work has again commenced on the railway bridge over the South Saskatchewan at Adams' crossing. The first structure will be a pile and timber one, to serve temporarily to carry trains and as a falsework to support the permanent steel bridge during erection. The bridge will be pushed with all vigor and the rails put down as soon as it is completed. Trains are expected to reach Prince Albert in about six or eight weeks.

—Clara Mathes and company now managed by W. B. Sherman and Oswald Roberts will be the theatrical attraction appearing in the Rink theatre next week. Miss Mathes has the same company as on the coast, where the company appeared for three months. A Vesper, and long engagements in other coast cities. The engagement is for two weeks. There is an entire change of program at every performance. The engagement begins on Monday, July 24.
